Worship Services 8 am, 9:30 am and 11 am on Sunday, 5:30 pm Saturday

When you gather with your family this Thanksgiving and experience the joy and the pain ... those who loved you and those who wounded you and still do, those who hurt you and those who healed you and still do, those who gave you hope and snuffed out your dreams and still do, those who picked you up and those who let you down and still do, those who kept promises and those who broke promises and still do, those who make you laugh and those who make you cry, those who comfort you and those who disturb you ... when you see those human faces ... joyous, angry, sad, bitter, broken, happy, hopeful, lost ... the young, the strong, the old, the weak ... remember that you will be all of these things one day ... and keeps these words of Mother Theresa in your heart: "There is a terrible hunger for love. We all experience that in our lives - the pain, the loneliness. We must have the courage to recognize it. The poor you may have right in your own family. Find them. Love them." Long periods of prayer in solitude occupied much of Mother Teresa's time before she went to visit her Home for the Dying in Calcutta. Before you gather with friends and family, remember Mother Teresa's words: "Before you speak, it is necessary for you to listen, for God speaks in the silence of the heart . . . " ... and give what you give with your heart, for we are all in the Home for the Dying. Pause for a moment ... and then go forward in love.

By Susan Dunn, MA, Professional Life Coach

From Mother Teresa:

People are often unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered;

Forgive them anyway.

If you are kind, people may accuse you of having selfish, ulterior motives;

Be kind anyway.

If you are successful, you will win some false friends and some true enemies;

Succeed anyway.

If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you;

Be honest and frank anyway.

What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight;

Build anyway.

If you find serenity and happiness, others may be jealous;

Be happy anyway.

The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow;

Do it anyway.

Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough;

Give the world the best you've got anyway.

You see, in the final analysis, it is between you and God;

It never was between you and them . . . anyway.

Have a blessed Thanksgiving.

PASTOR'S PERSPECTIVE

Pastor Dan Hansen

On "The Fill" for youth.....As I mentioned in an email a couple of weeks ago, this is one the most exciting new things happening here at FC this Fall. Every other Sunday evening our Middle School & Sr High Youth "fill" our Fellowship Hall for learning & laughter & worship & small group sharing & refreshments. What a blessing that our youth ministry has truly outgrown the youth room downstairs so that we've "had to" give them the second biggest room in our facility—the Fellowship Hall! You know Brit's passion for teaching God's Word....send your kids and feel free to hang around to observe or volunteer as a small group leader.

On our NEW Senior Ministry Fellowship...this has really taken off! Thanks to our wonderful 30th Anniversary Team, we had over 70 seniors attend a wonderful Senior Luncheon for our 30th anniversary in August, and then this month we had another delightful luncheon that was attended again by about 70 seniors! As I write this, Linda Thoman, Janelle Olson and Susie Groshong are busy planning a Monday afternoon program for Dec 13th. Stay tuned for more details!

On our NEW WNL (Wed Night Live) Worship...Check it out! Every Wednesday following our 5:30 meal together, we have 6:00 worship, often with Holy Communion.....in the Fellowship Hall. You'll notice that we now have a LARGE video screen in front which gives us the ability to do some really neat things with videos and teaching and music. PARENTS: we would love to have you join us for worship! Adult learning opportunities are being developed for the 6:30 hour while the kids have confirmation & WNL programming. Stay tuned for more info regarding WNL for adults!

On our WNL Suppers...this is a great opportunity for families and friends to eat together in the midst of busy Wednesday night activities. Historically, attendance has tended to pick up once the time changes and fall sports end. Thus far, we've simply had families sign up to take turns providing the meals, but I know of several large churches that simply have a monthly menu rotation (sloppy joes, pizza, chili, tacos, etc) provided by a kitchen team and they ask everyone to throw in $3.00 or so to cover the costs. If you have any ideas from other churches, please share them with us because we're always eager to improve our ministry for families. Additionally, we are hoping to soon provide several adult classes and learning opportunities as a part of WNL as well.

On our Stewardship.....thanks for your generosity! We've been very blessed. In a year in which general giving is down most places, our general giving is up slightly—PLUS, we raised the $30,000 anniversary give for the two Oromo Lutheran Churches in the Denver area. Praise God! As the old song goes, "Everybody's got something to offer...in the name of the Lord." As you know we're in the process of collecting "Estimate of Giving" cards. We realize not everyone can estimate their giving for 2011 because of economic uncertainties, but if you are in a position to estimate your giving, it really does help us plan our ministry budgets for 2011. If everyone takes even a modest step forward in their giving, we will be in a position to support $85,000 worth of additional ministry. We rejoice where God is moving hearts to serve and support the work of His Kingdom in our midst!

On our Pastoral Care.....our Diaconal Minister, Ed Broestl is now taking the lead in his area of ministry, and he's blessed to be working with both our Stephen Ministers & our NEW Faith Congregation Care (FCC) team which provides meals & rides & prayer & caring for families going through a loss or health crisis. You're welcome to help and to attend their monthly meetings on the 4th Monday of each month at 7pm, or contact Jan Rogers, Laurie Foust or Cookie Olsen. As much as I'd love to continue to make a personal contact of everyone in our church who is in need of pastoral care, I am comforted to know that quality ministry is being provided. Indeed, we are the "priesthood of all believers," and together we are the "Body of Christ."

On our Thanksgiving Eve Service...we're blessed to have Pastor Bruce preaching for this special communion service and we're blessed to have the choir sing as well. We know that for many, Thanksgiving is simply a time for food and football, but as our nation "gives thanks," let's begin the holiday by "praising God from whom all blessings flow." Pumpkin pie fellowship will follow the service!

On our Christmas Eve Candlelight Communion Schedule...Can you believe it? We'll probably start seeing the Christmas commercials soon! The good news from our services last year is that adding a 4th service worked well and we had a significant jump in attendance. The bad news is that the times were a bit hard to remember, so this year we're trying to keep it simple—our worship times will be at 2:00, 4:00, 6:00, and 7:30. That's beginning and ending the schedule slightly earlier than last year, but what we've noticed is that the earlier services seem to be the most popular. Please pray about who you might invite this year. I bet we all have friends or neighbors who may not have a church home and sometimes people are more open to (or "hungry" for) hearing God's Word during the holidays than at other times. Your partner in ministry, Pastor Dan

PARENTS of FAITH YOUTH

Greg Harms

"Making Significant Connections," which focused on understanding the basic need that humans have to be connected with others on a deeper level. Stu-

John 6:35 where Jesus says, "I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never go hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty." We call the FiLL this because we hold firm to the truth that Jesus is the only one out there that will ever fully meet our needs and He tells us we need Him to be our FiLL.

We come together every 2nd & 4th Sunday of the month for worship, teaching, games, and FiLLup groups. These FiLLups are an amazing time for our youth to engage with one another in conversations about the Bible and how they can live out their faith day in and day out. These groups are lead by an amazing team of adult leaders who help facilitate conversation and share their thoughts, experiences, and struggles along with the youth.

I really want to encourage you as a family to get connected to this time of worship for your students. It is an amazing time for them to grow in their faith with other believers and be challenged to go to that next level. Here are some of the things being said by the students involved:

- "It's an awesome time to come and have our own space and time to think about God & His words and talk about it with our friends."
- "I've been challenged to see just how important it is to be with other people from the church."
- "Just realized tonight how much my mother does for our family & what a blessing she is to us – I need to tell her."
- "I've been a part of 4 other youth groups and this place is awesome! You guys are super nice and love on people like for real."
- "It's awesome having this time and having adults talk to us about their faith in a way that we can understand."
- "Man I need to get my friends to this, this rocks!!!!" And a few from our adult leaders...
- "I so wish I had this when I was a youth! What a great environment to talk about God and really wrestle with who He is and what He calls us to be a part of."

- "I think I'm getting more out of this than the kids are, this is awesome."
- "These students are blowing my mind in an amazing way with what they know and what they want to learn more about."

Last Sunday we talked about

dents were challenged to make their small group a safe place where members can be real and honest about their lives, and get help from each other to become more like Christ. Along with us knowing we need a deep connection I encourage all of us to get more connected to what God is doing in your life and in the life of Faith Community.

On October 24th we will be meeting again and talking about "Growing in Your Faith," focusing on the truth that we were created to know God. This relationship with God grows as we spend time with Him.

You play an important role in helping your teenager grow spiritually, which is why each week I suggest some questions you can ask your student to generate conversation:

- Share with your teenager how you spend time with God. (If you're not making time for God, so that your child can see, what does that say?)
- What helps you in your relationship with God?
- What are the things that hinder your relationship?
- How is talking with God similar to talking with your friends? How is it different?
- What might your faith look like a year from now if you made a decision to spend time with God each day?
- How might your life be different?

There's so much more to share but I just want to simply say... "Come and see!" (John 1.46) So families and youth, "Come and see" what God is doing in our church family and be a part of something powerful leaving a legacy in your lives and the lives of all they come in contact with.

So remember the FiLL is every 2nd & 4th Sundays of the month, doors open at 7pm and we go till 8:15 and hang out until about 8:30. We hope to see you the 14th of November for an AMAZING night!

Thanks for your prayers for our youth ministry! Know that I'm praying for you and your family, too!

Brit Windel

P.S. We call it the FiLL, other churches call it "youth group" – same thing, we just have a cooler name!

PASTORAL CARE

Update from Pastor Dan Hansen

If you "google" either of these phrases that we use in the Apostles' Creed, you can find a plethora of information. Did you know...

The phrase "into hell" in older translations and the phrase "to the dead" are both translated from the phrase "into hades" in the original Greek of the creed. Older translations of the Apostles' Creed use hell to translate the Greek word hades, but modern translations of the Apostles' Creed say that Jesus descended to the dead. The point is that Jesus really did die, He didn't fake it—which was one of the heresies challenging the early church.

The ancient teaching of the Church is that all who died before the time of the crucifixion, whether they were righteous or unrighteous, went to the same undifferentiated realm of the dead, where they wait for the resurrection and the judgment. This realm of the dead is called "sheol" in Hebrew and "hades" in Greek. And the point is, when Jesus died on the cross, He really did die.

Over the years, we have professed the creed as written in the Green Hymnal and the various Red Hymnals. Because so many of us have memorized the creeds, it's easy for us to take for granted the meaning.

NURSERY

Nursery New Notification System

Parents using FC's nursery need to pay close attention to the screens during worship.

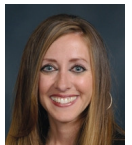

We have instituted a new system of notification for you to come to the nursery to sooth your child. You will be given a card with a number when you sign your child to the nursery. That number will flash across the screens in the Sanctuary and Narthex during the worship service for 15 to 30 seconds. That is an indication you are needed in the nursery ASAP.

We anticipate this systems working well, thereby, eliminating the need to purchase a new system of notification. If you are not going to be in the Sanctuary, please tell the attending nursery assistant where you will be. The ushers and the VPU operators are an integral part of this process. We thank them for making this new system workable.

Nursery Assistance Needed

With holidays coming faster than we think, I am starting early to see who might be available to cover the following nursery needs. If you can help, please let me or the church office know.

- Thanksgiving Eve, Wed, November 24, 7 pm
- Christmas Eve, Friday, December 24, 2 pm
- Christmas Eve, Friday, December 24, 4 pm

OUTREACH

Common Cathedral...Pearls in the Park

by Kayla & Rob Smith

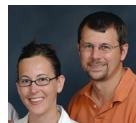

For several months we had been asking God to show us where He wanted us to serve.....a way Rob and I could serve together. God answers prayers! In early August we began attending Common Cathedral when Diane Sell organized the first meal our church would prepare and serve to the homeless. We've rarely missed a Friday night since. The people continue to draw us back. The homeless do not refer to themselves as the 'homeless,' but as 'their family.' As Deacon Marc Genty says over and over, 'Common Cathedral is not about outreach. It is about building community a community of faith, a community of fellowship, a community of equals and a community of friends.'

Meet Doug. It's hard to guess his age, somewhere in his 40s maybe. A few weeks ago, Common Cathedral held a memorial service for Sarge, a friend of Doug's. In chatting with Doug during dinner, he told me he'd been friends with Sarge for many years. They'd met in the army. That's when Doug started drinking. When Sarge had a drink, so did Doug. That began many years of alcohol abuse and deteriorating health. Today Doug is 'dry,' has been for a while now. He is always at the park on Friday nights hungry not only for dinner but also for God's Word and especially for fellowship with his friends. He always has a big hug for everyone, including us. He recently enrolled in Front Range and will start school in January to learn how to read, and with God's help, get a job helping others with addictions. His joy and love for Jesus are obvious in his expressions, prayers and in his actions. When the meal is over and we are leaving, Doug always thanks us for coming and wishes us to have a good week!

WORK DAY BUILD

Saturday, November 6th
8 am to 2 pm

FCLC will be working on a

Habitat home and we're looking for 12-14 volunteers. No Construction Experience is necessary! Just a "CAN DO" attitude and a sense of adventure! We'll be out at 180 Sunset Street in Longmont (near Sunset & Spruce) working on either a foundation or subfloor for a home for a well deserving family in need (see attached family profile for new owners). We start at 8:00 and go until around 2pm. Lunch is provided. If you are 16 and older, you can help and we promise you will have a good time learning something new. To sign up, please contact Dave Emerson at demerson@stvrainhfh.org or 303.946.5190. Diane Emerson is coordinating the first ever "Womens Build" next year. Interested contact:

didirae@yahoo.com

Please meet our HFH family for the build at 180 Sunset Street in Longmont: Jessica and Salvador

Jessica and Salvador dream of becoming the first in their families to own their own home. They have seen the impact that foreclosures can have on a family and the debt that can pile up from renting. They are looking for something stable, predictable and affordable.

Their current situation is unbearable. With 8 family members sharing 2 bedrooms they are in need of more space. The house that they are currently renting is in disrepair and an inattentive landlord has left the house without properly working heat, mold, spiders and mice. Their son suffers from asthma and the other children from severe colds, which are made worse but the house's condition. Jessica is constantly worried of the busy street outside their house.

Jessica is a full-time dedicated stay at home mom and Salvador works for Lovewell Fencing. Jessica and Salvador have 5 children and a nephew who also lives with them. This large close-knit family dreams of a bigger home on a quiet street where their children can grow up safely and play outside.

When asked about what it will mean to Jessica to have her own home she said "I don't think I will stop crying. It will help us in so many ways, I don't even know where to start. This house will show our kids that anything is possible."

The family is making plans for Sunday night family dinners for the new house. "With all the busyness of a large family our dream in our new home is to make Sunday nights family night. We can just imagine sitting down for dinner in our new home and taking the time to catch up with each member of our family."

Jessica and Salvador are also very excited to have their own bedroom. Currently they are sharing a room with 3 of the children. Jessica can't wait to have her own "miniature sanctuary, a place where I can have a few minutes a day to myself."

"It is nice to know there are nice people in the world. You don't meet nice people every day. But we were fortunate to meet Habitat. We seem to have had the worst luck in life. But Habitat is about to change all that," said Jessica.

Hope to see you at the Build on November 6.

NOTES FROM SEMINARY

Hello from Minnesota! This is Ben and Stephanie Mason writing as a way to keep in touch with our family at Faith and let everyone know how we are doing. For those of you who do not know us, I grew up at Faith Community and my wife and I were active as members until we moved north a little over a year ago so that I could go to seminary here in St. Paul. It has been an amazing and also really trying year, and I can say with great conviction that God is moving in our lives and shaping us for a future serving Him in ministry. I can see God's hand even in the most difficult things.

My classes are going very well, I am learning a great deal and enjoying the journey. There are times when I don't agree with everything that is being taught, but I am thankful for the opportunity to hear the perspectives of other people because hearing a position that you don't agree with is often the best way to learn to articulate your own views. I am especially enjoying my preaching class, and getting to write and give a sermon every other week. This semester especially I am getting to take classes from truly phenomenal professors, some of who were largely what drew us to Luther Seminary.

We have found a wonderful and faithful church where we can get involved and Steph has been participating in the Alpha program there as well as Bible Study Fellowship, just so I'm not the only one up to my neck in homework. We have been blessed to make some dear friends in our time here, relationships that sustain us through the challenges of seminary, and that we will cherish for years to come.

This last summer I was able to participate in a unique program called Clinical Pastoral Education, which is a chaplaincy internship that is one of my requirements here at seminary. I worked forty hours a week visiting patients in a hospital, and so far I think that it has been the most transformative and important part of my seminary experience. It really was where the rubber meets the road, and I can't imagine learning as much about myself as a pastor in a hundred classes as I did in those few short months spent in pastoral care of the sick and their loved ones.

In some ways I can't believe that it has already been a year and two months since we moved, but in other ways it feels like years have passed and I think that is because the experience has been so rich and life changing. Most of all we want to thank you for your prayers and support; it humbles and honors us to think of the great cloud of witnesses that surrounds us and lifts us up as we travel this road. We don't know where we would be without you. Know that I take this call to ministry with the utmost reverence, know that your prayers and thoughts sustain and encourage me in the preaching of God's true Word, and know that there is a light that shines in the darkness, and the darkness will not overcome it. Grace and peace to you all.

Regarding the LOCK or UNLOCK on comments In FAITHBOOK. Yes, the lock is turned on by staff when we send prayer chain requests. People click on that comment box to reply and it goes to everyone on the prayer chain. It is like a 'reply to all' button. We have had people tell us it is not necessary to reply to all when they want their message to go directly to the person we are praying for. People have told us they are getting too many emails. So in an effort to keep emails replies down to a minimum, staff sends requests LOCKed. That requires someone wishing to reply or send a note about that prayer request to go to the PEOPLE tab, select the person, opening up a direct email connection to that person only, not the entire group. However, when a member sends a prayer request directly from the prayer chain group page to the entire group, the staff is not involved. That is how some prayer chain requests are NOT LOCKED.

Unfortunately, it takes time and understanding to get our whole congregation on board with the FAITHBOOK system. It is a delicate balance when so many people are involved and it is not possible to keep everyone happy in every situation. Please know we are not excluding anyone in the communication process, we just want people to understand what happens when they do communicate. We appreciate feedback and look forward to the communication door to be open!

Council Business

Outline for Nov. 1 congregational meeting. Intent is to communicate what we've learned with the congregation, to share proposed next steps, and to listen to the congregation. Craig moved and Ed Smith seconded a motion to support Pastor Dan's position that the congregation is in a period of discernment about its relationship with the larger church organization. Our expectation is that this will take 2 to 2.5 years. Motion carried.

Constitutional Committee—Miles and the constitutional committee suggested changes to the constitution, which were distributed to the council for review. The changes set expectations for FC pastors and also would require a 2/3 vote of the congregation to approve the appointment of an interim pastor. All references to "pastor" would say "pastor or interim pastor."

Nominating Committee update. Ed Smith will take names of those who will be on the nominating committee.

Budget schedule. Susan has received the budget proposals.

Treasurer's Report: Craig reviewed the treasurer's report. We've spent about $15,000 more than we've collected so far this year, so we need to watch. We spent more than normal in August because of the anniversary. Our giving is up over last year but so is spending. Tom moved and Gloria seconded a motion to approve the treasurer's report. Motion carried
